HAWAII'S INCOME TAX IS UPHeld

United States Circuit Court of Appeals Approves Plan for Raising Revenue.

(Special By Scripps-McLae.) San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 10.—Hawaii's income tax was sustained by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals in an opinion handed down by Judge Gilbert today. In the new island territory it is said to be impossible to raise an adequate revenue by any system of land taxation. So the income tax levied is of vital importance to the territorial government. The income tax was contested by many taxpayers. It was alleged that the income tax was a discrimination tending to compel citizens to incriminate themselves; presumably by answering questions falsely. The Court of Appeals says it sees no discrimination.

Promoters of the Southern Wisconsin Interurban Are in Edgerton Today.

Michael Hayes and H. H. Jackson of the Southern Wisconsin Interurban railroad company went to Edgerton this morning to go over the route between that city and Stoughton and Madison. The company have not yet made any definite arrangements regarding the road and have not secured any franchises in the cities through which they will pass. From Stoughton to Madison the road will probably follow along the south side of Kegonsa and Wabesa and swing around the south end of Monona, so as to get into Madison near the St. Paul station.

The company has several different routes in view between Janesville, Edgerton and Stoughton and are figuring on running through as many small towns as possible between these points.

They will have everything in readiness by spring to start on the construction of the line.

The method employed is not unlike that of the injection of formalin.

Dr. Nellert, when the man was brought to the hospital, realizing that by the ordinary methods of treatment his death was only a few hours distant, secured the permission of the patient and his relatives for the experiment, which consisted of injecting ten drops of a 10 per cent solution every three hours. Thus far it has proved successful, although it is not known whether it will sustain the patient sufficiently to carry him on to recovery.

DIED IN COLORADO

Wife of a Former Pastor of the Presbyterian Church Has Passed Away.

Word has been received in this city of the death of Mrs. T. C. Kirkwood, wife of Rev. Dr. Kirkwood, a former pastor of the Janesville Presbyterian church. Mrs. Kirkwood passed away at her residence in Idlewild, Colorado Springs, and her death came as a sudden shock to her many friends. Mrs. Kirkwood had been in poor health for the past year but death was directly due to paralysis and heart failure, she having suffered two strokes within two weeks. Deceased was fifty-seven years of age and had resided in Colorado Springs for the past twenty-three years. For the first five years of that time Dr. Kirkwood was pastor of the First Presbyterian church and after his retirement from the pulpit, he and his wife continued as active workers in the church.

PUBLIC WHIPPING CAUSES RACE WAR

Negroes Are Incensed Over Flogging of Their People on Courthouse Steps at Fayette.

Fayette, Mo., Feb. 10.—A race war has been started here as the result of the public whipping of three negroes on the courthouse steps for alleged misconduct. Two of them were women. Since then it is said twenty-five negro families have been frightened into leaving this vicinity.

The recent killing of Harry O'Donnell, a reputable citizen, was charged to negroes and did much to stir up enmity. The whites have openly threatened to battle with negroes and drive them from Fayette and vicinity.

The one negro man who was whipped made a desperate resistance. It took several men to carry him to the whipping post. When the ordeal was ended the negro was so weak from loss of blood that he was put to bed instead of being driven from the town.

The women, who were not whipped severely, were taken to the outskirts and told to go.

Both sides are determined and armed.

TITLED FOREIGNER HAS PASSED AWAY

Duke of Tetuan, the Former Spanish Minister of Foreign Affairs, Is Dead.

(Special By Scripps-McLae.) Madrid, Feb. 10.—The Duke of Tetuan, formerly minister of foreign affairs, who has been ill for some time past, died yesterday.

The Duke of Tetuan had Irish blood in his veins. His father was General O'Donnell, who, in 1860, in the war with the Moors, invested and captured the town of Tetuan in Morocco and got a title for the deed. Besides this title the duke also inherited the title of Lord Donegal in Ireland and the name is an illustrious one in Irish history. Tetuan's mother was a Spanish woman, and thus he combined in his personality the traits of both races. Owing to his Irish ancestry he refused to be ambassador to England. He was 68 years old.

GREAT UPRISING AGAINST TURKEY

Bulgaria Will Assist the Macedonians in Their Present Struggle.

(Special By Scripps-McLae.) Sofia, Feb. 10.—Having received official communication regarding Turkey's decision to mobilize two army corps at Adrianople and Monastir, the Bulgarian government today addressed representations to the powers invoking their good offices at Constantinople to procure the cessation of the Turkish military operations.

It is felt here that while Turkey's reinforcement of her troops in Macedonia may be justified, in view of the internal situation and the Austro-Serbian military preparations, the mobilization at Adrianople can be regarded only as a menace to Bulgaria. It is stated that the government will refrain from any counter demonstrations and mobilize the Bulgarian army only in the case of extreme necessity, it being fully realized that even a successful conflict with Turkey would mean financial ruin to Bulgaria.

Crown Princess of Saxony Fires Three Shots in Her Attempt To Die.

THOUGHT INSANE

The Conditions Set Down by Her Father May Now Be Accepted, in Her Despair.

(Special By Scripps-McLae.) Vienna, Feb. 10.—Die Zeit reports that the Crown Princess Louise of Saxony attempted to commit suicide at the sanitarium where she has been taken. She is at the present time being watched very closely to prevent a second attempt.

ICE CAUSES LEAK IN STANDPIPE

Tears Iron Rod Loose, Making a Small Hole—Does Not Affect Service.

The large stand pipe belonging to the Janesville Water Co. located on Cornelia street in the Second ward sprung a leak this morning shortly before noon and considerable water escaped.

The leak was caused by the ice inside the pipe settling and pulling one of the rods that braces the pipe through the side of the structure. The hole thus made was about four inches wide and two inches deep and was about forty feet above the ground. The water pressure inside forced the water through the hole with considerable force and the wind catching it sprayed it out so that people living in that vicinity imagined that there was an immense hole in the side of the tower. The water inside the pipe was drawn off down below the hole and will be kept at that stage until the leak is repaired.

The break does not affect the city's supply of water or fire protection in the least. Mr. C. S. Jackson, treasurer of the company stated that the tower was of little use to them outside of equalizing the pressure on the mains and it had not been built before they bought the plant they would never have built one.

Many people think that the stand pipe is used at fires unless a call for direct pressure is turned in. Superintendent Hyzer stated that the valve shutting off the stand pipe is always tripped when a fire alarm comes in and the pumps at the pumping station are started, giving direct pressure at once, and that this break does not interfere with the service in the least and that it would not interfere if there was no water in the tank.

GREAT REVIVAL BEING PLANNED

FIVE CHURCHES OF THE CITY WILL UNITE.

REV. BIEDERWOLF IS SECURED

Special Services Will Be Held for Sixteen Days, Beginning Sunday, March 22.

Believing that the time is ripe for a general religious revival in this city and inspired by the remarkable work that has been done in Beloit during the last two weeks, five of the pastors of the city have decided to hold a series of special meetings under the auspices of their united churches. Arrangements for these services were completed at a meeting of the pastors held in Rev. J. T. Henderson's study Monday afternoon.

Churches Will Unite
Rev. W. E. Biederwolf, the evangelist who has been meeting with such marvelous success in his work in Beloit, has been secured and the meetings will be held under the auspices of the Presbyterian, Baptist, Court Street M. E., Congregational and First M. E. churches. The special services will begin on Sunday, March 22 and will close on Monday evening, April 6, being a little over two weeks in duration. Services will be held every afternoon and evening during that time except Saturdays and Rev. Biederwolf will be accompanied by the singing evangelist, Mr. Maxwell, who is conceded to be the best director of revival music in the country.

Janesville Is Fortunate
The Janesville pastors consider themselves as very fortunate in being able to secure the Rev. Biederwolf's services at this time as his time is spoken for a year in advance. There was a mistake about the date in March, however, and as Rev. Biederwolf prefers to work under the united and harmonious auspices of the churches of the city, he held the date open, it was through the personal friendship and influence of the Rev. Henderson that Janesville secured this open date.

When Rev. Henderson returned home from a visit to Beloit last Friday evening he brought with him a proposition from Rev. Biederwolf, who stipulated as one of the conditions of his coming that the five churches should unite. The proposition was presented to the pastors by Rev. Henderson on Saturday and they in turn consulted with the officers of the various churches.

Met With Pastors
At a conference of the pastors held on Monday morning they expressed themselves as favorably impressed with the plan and Rev. Biederwolf was invited by telephone to come to Janesville and talk over definite arrangements. Accompanied by the Rev. T. T. Creswell, pastor of the Beloit Presbyterian church, Rev. Biederwolf accepted the invitation in the afternoon and met the interested pastors at Rev. Henderson's home. At this meeting a definite agreement was reached.

To End Beloit Meetings
Rev. Biederwolf will close his meetings at Beloit on Thursday evening, going directly to Des Moines, Ia., and from there to Buffalo, N. Y. From Buffalo Rev. Biederwolf will return West, coming to Janesville. He is one of the most successful evangelists in the country and seems to have the power to interest and draw all classes of people it is said that there have been over three hundred conversions as a result of the meetings in Beloit.

ICE HARVEST WILL END IN A FEW DAYS

The City Ice Company Has Filled Many Ice Houses, and Has Only a Few Left.

Before the end of the week the ice harvest of the city will be completed. The People's company filled all of its own houses some weeks ago, and has only a few private houses yet to stock with ice, the Hemming and Blatz being among them. Snowless roads are making transportation difficult and it may be necessary to bring wheels into service to complete the work. The more balmy atmosphere has not yet had any detrimental effects upon the ice, but a short exposure quickly honeycombs it.

THE EVENTS OF THE DAY

Big Initiation: Twenty-five members of the A. O. H. were initiated on Sunday afternoon. John J. Kelly of Milwaukee had charge of the work and complimented the lodge on their work.

Articles Filed: The articles incorporating the Southern Wisconsin Interurban Railway company were filed with the register of deeds yesterday. Attention W. R. C.: A special meeting of W. H. Sargent W. R. C. is called for tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 sharp. All members are requested to be present as business of importance will be considered. By Order of President.

Another Wrestler: A wrestler calling himself "Young Sandow" is in the city and is anxious to arrange a match with Beel, Youseff or Klank.

Had Brief Vacation: The majority of the young people of this city who are attending the University of Wisconsin have been home for a few days, enjoying a breathing spell between semesters and after examinations. Most of the students returned to Madison today.

BUDGET OF THE FINGERBALLISTS

Plans for the State Tourney—Will Bowl Beloit—Rockford Terms Are Not Liked.

Bowling seems to have gone into a decline of late, and now within six days of the opening of the state tourney it is uncertain whether Janesville will be represented at Milwaukee. It has been generally supposed that a two-man team would uphold the honor of the city, and entries have been made accordingly. In case a team is made up Robert Hockett will undoubtedly be one of the bowlers, but his partner is still uncertain. Dr. James Gibson has been generally looked to to fill this place, but he has not yet given a definite affirmative answer.

Think of Competing
Tom Nolan may compete among the state finger ball artists at Milwaukee. Business will call him to Chicago this week, and if he can conclude in time he will probably return via Milwaukee. H. O. Schmidley has also thought of taking part in the tourney, but expects to be prevented by the pressure of business. Thirteen cities have entered teams for the tournament, which begins on Monday, February 10, continuing through the week. Beloit will send a two-man team, Dorrbaker and Frost being the principals.

To Meet Beloit
As soon as Manager Dorrbaker has completed some of the repairs on the Beloit alleys, consisting of the substitution of some new "kick-backs," Janesville will bowl the Beloit team. The match will probably take place at Beloit the last of the week. Negotiations with the Rockford contingent have not progressed favorably. The Forest City "All Stars" are a speedy bunch and consequently the locals are not falling in with their proposals to compete on a losing team pay all the expenses.

Local Bowling League
If the city league bowling series is not resumed this week, Manager Hockett of the Leffingwell alleys will divide the prizes among the contestants and declare the series off. A number of handsome steins were to have been given to the winners, but as the situation now stands the teams are nearly on a par, and so cigars or bowling tickets to a value equal to that of the steins will be distributed among all of the bowlers, regardless of their standing.

ARE FINISHING SALVAGE GOODS

Isabel Factory Force Is Putting Finishing Touches on Stock for Insurance Company.

About a dozen workmen are now busied at the Isabel works in completing the unfinished salvage goods for the insurance company, preparatory to laying in a new stock and commencing the season's work anew. The entire line of samples which were in stock at the time of the blaze will go to the insurance company, and everything will be cleaned out before the new goods are brought in. In the course of two or three weeks it is expected to have new material on hand to put the entire force at work again. The room in which the sewing machines and other apparatus are located was undamaged by fire and it would be possible for operations to go on uninterrupted if it were not for the lack of material and the necessity of getting the salvage out of the building for the fire adjusters.

If you enjoy mudlins or wallies, try Mrs. Ausch's Pancake flour and you will be delighted with the results.

BISHOP FALLOWS GIVES A LECTURE

DISTINGUISHED CHICAGOAN APPEARS ON PEOPLE'S COURSE.

IDOLS AND THE WORSHIPPERS

Brilliant Anecdotes and Pertinent Incidents Related to Appreciative Auditors at Congregational Church.

There is no single word outside the dictionary of Americanisms which can describe the lecture of Bishop Fallows so accurately as the slang term, "smooth." In voice, manner and language, the distinguished Chicago divine justified the use of that adjective. If the Congregational church had been packed with holders of People's Lecture Course tickets he would have kept the house in convulsions of merriment. Being small the audience felt the usual timidity which discourages all demonstrations and was only mildly appreciative. The post-lecture remarks as the auditors were leaving the building indicated a greater degree of appreciation than was made manifest.

Modern Ideals and Their Worshipers was the theme on which Bishop Fallows spoke. He gave a notable illustration of the power of story telling as a substitute for argument. Incidentally he turned over to his listeners a fund of pertinent anecdote and bits of personal reminiscence told in scholarly inclusive language that well befitted his "smoothness" of manner, all of which probably conferred more actual pleasure than any amount of logic could have done. The ninety minutes which he occupied seemed all too small.

Suffered From Hoarseness
Toward the first the speaker struggled painfully against a severe cold, and he was obliged to hold his voice in restraint throughout the evening, but he soon mastered the hoarseness which tortured him for a time.

In cataloging the idols which man honors, Bishop Fallows followed the list given by Lord Bacon. In most instances a few illustrations served to clinch his point without calling in the aid of any flatteries, secondaries and chivalries. The idols which were thus dealt with were hasty generalization, over dependence on the past, infidelities of speech, uniformity, fabulous and visionary theories and the names of great men.

Throughout his lecture a pair of eye-glasses, hanging by a silken cord, played an important part in his gestures. Now they were carefully adjusted on the bridge of the speaker's stern nose, and now they were rudely jerked off to do duty as a pointer, or simply as a plaything with which to occupy his sensitive tapering fingers. When the glasses were in their place astride his nose the reverend gentleman was deliberative, ironical and even caustic; when they dangled from the string he was benign, and his usually implacable features softened until he fairly beamed upon his auditors, especially upon a group of small boys who sat near the platform and were addressed personally on more than one occasion.

Religion of Utah
Not the least interesting of Bishop Fallows' remarks were his statements on the subject of Mormonism. It seems that he has recently been making a special study of the subject for the New York Herald and his investigations inspired only loathing for the system. In no uncertain tones he denounced it root and branch as a "loathsome ulcer, a monster, a menace to this republic. I would not dare the speech I might in writing tell of the enormities." His remarks on this theme were brought in as an instance of idolatry to fabulous and visionary schemes.

With an appeal to cut loose from all these idols, and be free as God intended men should be, Bishop Fallows closed his lecture.

ROCKTON TEACHERS VISITED SCHOOLS

Entire Faculty from the Illinois Town Inspected Janesville's Educational System Today.

Principal D. Frank Fawcett and the members of the faculty of the graded school at Rockton, Ill., spent the day in inspecting the educational methods which are pursued in the Janesville public schools. There were six teachers in the party and they visited at the various buildings in the city. Monday the teachers of New Glarus, Wis., were in the city on a similar mission and expressed themselves as highly pleased with the results of their day's professional outing.

These two visits by delegations from Green county and from Illinois pay high compliment to the public school system of Janesville as one which is considered profitable to inspect. The rule of an annual visiting day for the teachers prevails in the majority of cities, is being expected that the teacher will spend the day at some school where she will obtain new ideas for her own work. In the larger cities the teachers take their visiting day as they find it convenient but in the smaller towns the school is closed and the entire teaching force makes its trip of inspection together.

WORK PRAISED BY PRESIDENT EATON

Head of Beloit College Praises the High School Manual Training Department.

President E. D. Eaton of Beloit college, was a guest at the Janesville High school, Monday, the special object of his visit being the inspection of the manual training department. President Eaton was quite enthusiastic in his praises of the work that is being done in this department. In his estimation it is meeting a need which is an essential to every city's educational system and he considers that Janesville has a department of which it has every right to be proud.

President Eaton also expressed his regret that the movement for the establishment of such a department in the Beloit high school was defeated. He believes that manual training is a valuable addition to the educational curriculum and hopes that Beloit may take a progressive step in this direction in the near future.

PINAFORE WAS GREAT SUCCESS

POPULAR OPERA IS GIVEN BY HOME TALENT

BEFORE IMMENSE AUDIENCE

Performance for the Benefit of St. Mary's Church To Be Repeated This Evening.

Unquestionably the credit for one of the most successful amateur productions ever given in the city belongs to the company of young people who, under the auspices of the St. Cecilia society of St. Mary's church presented Gilbert & Sullivan's ever popular "H. M. S. Pinafore" before the capacity of the Myers Grand last evening. While it was not an enthusiastic audience, it was certainly an appreciative one and one that went away pleased with the evening's entertainment.

A Pretty Opera
The opera itself is one of the prettiest ever staged and while of course the performance of Monday evening did not go with professional dash and spirit, there were no awkward hitches and very few evidences of a first-night performance. Thanks to the talented direction of Rev. Father L. J. Vaughan, who staged the production, the company of amateurs made an excellent appearance on the stage and more clever "business" than is customary in such performances was introduced.

Bright, Particular Stars
Prof. J. S. Taylor, as the gallant captain, easily carried off the honors of the evening, both for his singing and for his intelligent interpretation of his spoken lines. His enunciation in his songs was distinct and his solo, "Fair Moon" and his duet, "Things Are Seldom What They Seem" with Mrs. Phoebe Grant Kneff as "Little Buttercup" were among the very best numbers in the opera. The duet was especially bright and catchy and the audience insisted on an encore. Mrs. Kneff made quite a pronounced hit in the quaint character of Buttercup.

Mrs. Marie Muellenschlaeder Roessling sang the part of Josephine very prettily. Her voice is melodious and is especially pleasing in the middle register. She was at her best in her solo, "The Hours Creep on Apace," and merited the hearty applause which she received. Mrs. Roessling was presented with a bouquet of choice flowers as were Miss Lillie Bourgmeier and Andrew Gibbons.

The Two Comedians
The comedy of the production was furnished largely by Andrew Gibbons as the Right Honorable Sir Joseph Porter, K. C. D., and Peter Neuses as Dick Deadeye. Mr. Gibbons handled his monologue with a dainty air and his impersonation of the affected mannerisms of the priggish ruler of the queen's navy created much amusement. Every action of the middle-some and cynical Dick Deadeye was greeted with shouts of laughter and Mr. Neuses was a decided favorite with the audience.

Other Principals
W. E. Thresher, who was cast for the part of Ralph Rackstraw, was badly handicapped by a severe hoarseness but he struggled against it bravely and sang and played the part of the lover with genuine feeling. While his voice was far from being at its best, his solos and the duets and trios in which he participated were among the most pleasing numbers.

Clyde Turnbull's rich bass voice was effective and pleasing and he played the part of the boatswain most acceptably. Miss Lillie Bourgmeier made the most of the limited opportunities in the minor part of Hebe and Ed. Baumann carried acceptably the small part of Bob Becket.

Good Chorus
The choruses were especially attractive, the girls being prettily gowned and the gentlemen being attired in natty sailor costumes. The chorus "Carefully on Tiptoe Stealing" was one which found special favor with the audience. The ladies chorus included Mesdames Anna Mahon, James McGinley and John Flynn and the Messes Mary Harder, Sadie Gosselin, Agnes Higgins, Anna Dixon, Nellie Deneen, Laura Knipp, Nellie Callahan, Lizzie Joyce, Mabel Casey, Mable Gosselin, Clara Dayton, Nellie Tuffy, Jennie Burke, Ava Fraunfelder, Margaret Coen, Mary Gibbons, Sadie Judd, Della Fitzpatrick, Mable McGlachlin, Grace Wilbur, Kittie Driscoll, Camilla Thiele, Agnes Coen, Hattie Semrow, Augusta Muellenschlaeder, Mary Casey, Margaret Judd, and Stella Muellenschlaeder.

Male Chorus
The gentlemen's chorus included Ed. O. Smith, Antonio Hanuski, Edward Baumann, Ernest Struntz, Albert Norton, Gottlieb Fuelleman, Arthur Connors, Joseph McCarthy, Fred Gibbs, James McGee, Joseph Kolb and John Baumann.

Orchestral Accompaniment
Prof. W. T. Thiele was the musical director for the performance and much credit is also due Miss Tessie Gibbons for her excellent work at the piano. They were assisted in the accompaniments by a large orchestra. Another production of the opera will be given this evening.

HAWAII NEEDS IMPROVEMENTS

Superintendent of Public Works Estimates That $6,600,000 Is Necessary.
Honolulu, Feb. 10.—Hawaii needs $6,600,000 for local improvements necessary in the next two years, according to Henry E. Cooper, Superintendent of Public Works. He asked for this amount in his estimates furnished to Governor Dole, which will go to the legislature. The money is needed for the construction of bridges, roads and buildings and for running expenses. Cooper proposes that part of the money be raised by loan and suggests that a bill for securing $4,000,000 be introduced in the legislature.

ALABAMA TO RIVAL NEW JERSEY

Legislature Is Likely to Enact Most Liberal Corporation Laws.

Birmingham, Ala., Feb. 10.—The Birmingham Commercial club, one of the largest commercial associations in Alabama, has adopted resolutions calling on the legislature to enact even more liberal corporation laws than New Jersey now has. The state senate has already passed six bills granting corporations larger and more sweeping powers. It is regarded as almost certain that the bills will pass and that Alabama will become a "corporation state."

PALE WOMEN

A Bloodless Face Indicates Trouble.

Watery Blood a Menace to Health.

WE KNOW HOW PALE PEOPLE CAN GET RICH RED BLOOD.

COME AND LET US TELL YOU ABOUT VINOL

When blood is watery and thin, or, as doctors would say, lacks red blood corpuscles, it is a sign that much is radically wrong.

We would advise everyone who has such symptoms to start at once to take a proper remedy to overcome this trouble.

That remedy is Vinol, the greatest and most modern tonic and restorer. Vinol owes its virtue to the fact that it contains in a highly concentrated state the active curative principles extracted from cod's livers, the same elements that have made cod-liver oil famous for wasting diseases.

These medicinal elements are dissolved in a delicious table wine so that Vinol is most palatable.

None of the vile-smelling obnoxious grease that characterizes cod-liver oil and frequently makes it an impossible remedy for those who should take it, is found in Vinol.

We could relate many instances where Vinol has done good and restored the roses of health to the pale cheeks of the sufferer.

The following is a fair sample of the way people write in regard to Vinol: "For several months I suffered lassitude and tired all the time. Also a sinking feeling in my stomach, which nothing would relieve, and I was pale and weak. As an experiment I tried Vinol and if I wrote pages I could not tell all it has done for me."—Mrs. A. K. LaFollette, Amesbury, Mass.

Because we know Vinol so well, and because we know so surely what it will do, and how it will accomplish the good it does in a scientific way, we unreservedly endorse and recommend it, and in every instance guarantee to refund to any one what they pay us for Vinol if they do not find it entirely satisfactory.

RICHARD CARROLL HERE THURSDAY

Comedian Who Was with Miss Bob White Company Now with Lederer's Production.

"Sally in Our Alley," another of the George D. Lederer successful musical "galettes," after a most triumphant run in New York city, will be seen at the Myers Grand, Feb. 12. The characteristic display which one associates with the Lederer trademark—a throng of gay comedians, a lot of pretty girls in choruses, dances and frolics, wearing ever so many changes of handsome gowns, disporting fluffly lingerie, and putting so much "ginger," as Mr. Lederer calls it, into their doings on the stage—that both the gowns and the lingerie are sure to be equally in evidence—will not be found wanting in the forthcoming production. One might imagine from the quaint title of the piece that "Sally in Our Alley" would prove sort of a Kate Greenaway idyll, with the hero and heroine and their numerous friends of the chorus decked out in quaint English costumes of the period in which Kate Greenaway taught us was indissolubly connected with houses in green and yellow paint, in which lived young women, who affected Dolly Varden costumes. But "Sally in Our Alley" is nothing of the sort. Instead of green-and-yellow there is a riot of harmonious color, and instead of Dolly Varden costumes there are gowns which have been described only by the word "sumptuous." The heroine of the story is a young New York girl of today, who lives on the East Side or poorer section of Gotham. She is pretty, vivacious and unconventional and has in some way been given the nickname from which the piece takes its title. Her father "Izzy," keeps a shop, where one can buy and sell anything and everything. In this establishment troop the various characters from the Bowery of Fifth avenue who are concerned in the plot and who incidentally furnish plenty of "local color" to the stage scenes. Here the fashionable contingent of the cast, headed by Mrs. Marigold of the "smart set," throng in search of a green silk dress, which Mrs. Marigold gave to her maid, who, in turn, gave it to his pretty daughter, Sally, as it present, and in the pocket of which are some love letters which the amorous and usually discreet matron would not have any one read for the world. This, however, is but one of the funny incidents of the play, around which Mr. Lederer has evolved as pretty, and as jolly a piece of nonsense and set in as brilliant a kaleidoscope of color as ever marked his old time days when fun and frolic ran riot at the Casino. The book is by Mr. George V. Hobart, with music by Mr. Ludwig Engländer. One of the many scenes included in the two acts of "Sally in Our Alley" is laid in a fashionable Fifth avenue drawing room, where all the beautiful chorus girls are given an opportunity to display their family heirlooms, in the way of diamond tiaras and ropes of pearls. There are over one hundred people in the company, the most prominent being Junie McGree, Margaret Marston, Richard Carroll, Trixie Friganza, George Schiller, Frank Farrington, Harry Fairleigh, Catherine Lewis, Caroline Heustis, Frank Bernard and Tessie Mooney.

Vendetta

Every lover of romance should see "The Vendetta." The play is not a new one, but it is one that will stand repetition, and in the hands of Mr. Faust and Miss Carr every phase of the interesting story should be vividly portrayed. Miss Carr is not alone a finished actress, but she is a beautiful woman, perfectly suited to such a character as Nina, the false wife. And Nina is very false, by the way—very devilish in fact—but with all very attractive. Marie Correll is an adept in drawing characters of this kind. She understands thoroughly the artifice of women, and in Nina she represents a character so subtle, cunning, diplomatic and fiendish, that while she repels she fascinates you. It is a play of unusual strength and great possibilities. At the Myers Grand, Wednesday, Feb. 11.

Pretty Peggy

Miss George, with the help of Frances Aymar Matthews' new play and an energetic company, proves conclusively all that was the trouble with Mistress Wollington was that she did not exercise much discretion in selecting her friends.

As for herself, she was a bonny lass with a pair of pretty eyes, a rebell for wit and many qualities of heart and head that merited a better fate than David Garrick's unreliable fancy could supply. Miss George gave the part a charm that was as welcome as it is rare. It is the best part she has had and she plays it better than she ever played anything else. At Myers Grand, March 4.

Don't forget, please, Mrs. Austin's Panache Flour best of all. All grocers.

Women, why Suffer?

NERVOUSNESS AND ITS TRAIN OF TERRIBLE EVILS PERMANENTLY BANISHED BY PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND.

Mrs. Clark Tells of Her Happy Rescue from Suffering After Failures of Physicians.

Nervous disorders and diseases are on the increase, and women are the chief sufferers. Digestion gives out, there are pains in the head, the tongue is coated, the muscles ache, there is constipation, heart palpitation, gloomy fears oppress continually, and sleep is broken and disturbed.

The only reliable remedy that medical science has given to humanity for the cure of nervousness, is Paine's Celery Compound, prescribed by eminent physicians with the happiest results. In critical cases, Paine's Celery Compound has saved life and restored health when all other medicines failed. Mrs. F. A. Clark, of Moscow, Idaho, writes as follows about her success with Paine's Celery Compound:

"While suffering terribly from nervousness and nervous prostration, I was attended by several physicians, but their efforts brought no assuring results. I finally got so bad that it was impossible to sleep at night. My husband again wanted me to have a doctor, but I told him it was no use. He then went to our druggist who recommended Paine's Celery Compound. The first night I used the Compound, I slept well and I continued to improve from day to day. I used in all eight bottles of Paine's Celery Compound and am perfectly cured. I cannot say enough in its favor."

 WISCONSIN WEATHER FORECAST
 Threatening tonight and Wednesday; probably showers.

THAT INVESTIGATION

Now that the adverse hearing of Alderman McLean is over and the grand jury has been called city affairs will be thoroughly gone over and perhaps some county matters will also receive an airing. Thus far not much has been developed but it is possible that sensations will be sprung later on when the jury gets to work. But little tangible evidence seems to have developed from the adverse hearing of Alderman McLean beyond the fact that he had destroyed the books relating to the stone crusher work and only had his memorandum left. Then too, he was able to forget matters what did not interest him or explain that he never knew about them at all. What he did tell that many citizens had received presents of crushed stone from the city that had never been recorded in the city books and for which the city received no pay whatsoever.

TRUST—REGULATION

The intense interest with which the people are noting the progress of legislation for the regulation of trusts leaves small opportunity for any insincere action or trickery to pass unobserved. A case in point is that of the easy passage of the Elkins anti-rebate bill by the senate, where the opposition seem to have relied upon its being "held up" by Speaker Henderson in the house, and the proposed pigeonholing of the Littlefield bill, after it shall have passed the house, in a senate committee. Both houses have "gone on record" as favoring such strong anti-trust measures. It has apparently been hoped that the country would be satisfied; even though, "for want of time," neither bill should pass other than that branch of congress in which it originated. But the traditional "Watch on the Rhine" is nowhere compared with the vigilance of the watch kept by sincere men on the line which differentiates action from inaction on the trust measures; hence the promptness with which steps have been taken to insure the actual passage of at least one of the bills named—otherwise an extra session.

FOR UNITY

The St. Paul Pioneer Press says: If Oklahoma and the Indian Territory are to become one state, they should be united and brought in together. The only reason apparent to a disinterested observer for the proposal to first admit Oklahoma, and then, after awhile, add the Indian territory to the new state is that it will enable the Oklahoma politicians to frame a constitution to suit their local interests, organize the state government with themselves in all the offices, and elect two United States senators, without interference on the part of the people or politicians of the Indian territory. The white population of the latter territory is very nearly equal to that of Oklahoma, to say nothing of 66,000 Indians, mostly civilized; and to give Oklahoma such precedence, with such purposes would be grossly unjust.

OMAR CLUB

The alleged organization of the "Omar club" in London—taking its name and inspiration from the Mohammedan leader who burned the Alexandrian library, and having for its subjects the discouragement of authorship and the destruction of books—may, it is to be hoped, serve as an indication that the mania for authorship and publication has reached its highest mark, and that there may be hereafter a subsidence. But meanwhile just think of the millions of acres of beautiful trees which have been converted into pulp to be used in the manufacture of paper for worthless books!

BOWEN'S DIPLOMACY

Minister Bowen's "shirt-sleeve diplomacy" irritates the sensibilities of the Old World ambassadors, brought up to regard it as a maxim that in diplomacy speech should be used to conceal, not to reveal, one's meaning. But shirt-sleeve, not dress coat, methods have been behind nearly all America's successes; and their effectiveness in diplomacy was illustrated by several American secretaries and ministers long before Bowen came upon the stage.

It is safe to say that if Germany and Great Britain had it all to do over again they would do it in some other way.

It is too bad that Great Britain's purposes in the Venezuelan affair should be suspected when almost all the British minister have offered good explanations, no two of which were alike.

A particularly sinister feature of the goulash outrages brought to light in that Indiana grave-robbing case is that the thing must inevitably find its way into Indiana literature.

Why not call for the assistance of the comic opera costumers and have the question of ambassadors' uniforms settled with some regard to style?

An ambitious Boston society woman has been obliged to pay $15 to a servant who sued her. That is a small price for about $15,000 worth of advertising.

Evidently the powers are finding it a painful matter to bring the incident to a close without having left even an appreciable dent in the Monroe doctrine.

Has Quay ever stopped to consider what an outburst of popular enthusiasm he could create by following Addicks' example?

Now all that Hanna needs to do to make the convention solid is to introduce a bill pensioning all persons who were not slaves.

While the Balkan war cloud looks threatening, knowing ones in the vicinity have not sent home for their umbrellas.

What Abdul Hamid needs, more than anything else is some sort of Monroe doctrine around his premises.

How does it happen that the political bosses are so dead certain how the primaries will go before they are held?

Temper of the sky-scraper tenants were very generally elevated yesterday if the tenants were not.

Finland is suffering from Russia in addition to its famine. The combination could hardly be beaten.

Minister Bowen appears to be the right man in the right place — from Venezuela's point of view.

Those sky-scraper tenants cannot even take comfort in the idea that the walking is good.

Possibly in withdrawing from Delaware Addicks had his eye on Arizona or New Mexico.

Just at present John Bull is managing to dissemble his love pretty effectually.

PRESS COMMENTS

Superior Leader: The Milwaukee Sentinel is as bitterly opposed to a primary election law as it has ever been.

Milwaukee Sentinel: A Boston professor states that pretty girls do not make good wives. But the average young man will go on taking his chances.

Chippewa Herald: This is the best winter for loggers we have experienced in many years. If contractors do not make money this season they never will.

Waupaca Post: The Milwaukee Journal has declared, in a double column, double headed editorial, that a primary bill is not pure democracy. This ought to settle it.

Green Bay Gazette: Now that the primary election bill is before the legislature prompt action may as well be taken. There can be no material advantage in delay.

Chippewa Herald: The Janesville Gazette says it is up to Speaker Lenroot as to whether or not there is to be harmony in the assembly. It seems to us it is also up to the members.

Milwaukee News: When Mr. Babcock offered an amendment to the judicial bill to forbid congressmen to accept railway passes, it was declared out of order. Of course; he ought to have known better.

Menasha Breeze: Some of the state papers are saying that the election was won on the taxation issue. We think the fact is that it was won by good organization.

Marquette Star: The college cut-ups have their innings in the quiet interval between the football and baseball seasons. Only the blind can fail to see the immense value of athletics—the safety valve of the modern university.

Madison Journal: It is safe to predict that a reasonable primary election bill and a reasonable railroad tax bill will be enacted by the present session. The sentiment of the legislators of both factions points that way.

Chippewa Herald: The Eau Claire Leader refers to the residents of Chippewa as "quidnuncs." This is a fierce jab but we'll try to survive it and keep plugging along, shaking an occasional sugar factory from the tree of progress.

Eau Claire Telegram: It is as much as the average newspaper man can do nowadays to please the dear public by printing the names of those who want to see themselves in print and leaving those out who don't. Between these two classes the editor plays leap frog in his honest endeavor to please.

Milwaukee Free Press: These are very serious days for Dr. Wagner of Madison. The bill which was introduced by Senator Rogers making the Evening Wisconsin the official state paper is a cruel thrust, and if the proposed action should be taken we greatly fear that it will sour the doctor's sunny disposition.

Hudson Times Star: It now looks as though the railroads of the state had decided to accept the ad valorem plan of taxation in place of the gross earnings way so long prevalent in this state. While they prefer the latter method as more easy and less annoying, it is thought the assessment system will give the road a better means of defense if extortion is attempted and in the long run will cost them less than in the old way.

Stevens Point Journal: The Oshkosh Times gets its Stevens Point news by clipping its items from the Journal and putting a date line on, the inference being conveyed to the reader that the news was written especially for that paper. The good taste and judgment of the Times in looking to this paper for all important Stevens Point news is to be commended, and yet it might, once in a great while, give credit where credit is due.

TWELVE WHYS.

Why do many employers say their clerks are a stupid lot and unworthy of their consideration?

Why do many clerks look with envy on their employers and rage over every correction or sharp word?

Why do many wives put on the injured martyr air instead of telling their husbands just what they want or think?

Why do many persons behave more courteously and kindly to outsiders than they do to the ones they really love the best of all?

Why do many men laugh at women's lack of business ability and yet sneer and rather look down on the woman who shows she has some?

Why do many children resent anything their parents say and look on them as bores and long to be grown up so as to escape from them?

Why do many mothers-in-law demand all the attention and in return refuse to do anything to make their children happy except in so far as it pleases them personally?

Why do many rich folk look on their poor relatives as being always on the look out for favors and so prevent the poor relatives from giving them little presents or being natural with them?

Why do many servants look on their mistresses as their natural enemies, and, forgetting the many kindnesses done to them, "give notice" if their mistresses speak crossly about some stupid or careless thing they have done?

Why do many husbands work hard for their wives and family, but never think how the wife would appreciate an invitation to the theater, a little dinner at a restaurant, a box of candy or some flowers brought home unasked?

Why do many mistresses like their servants when the servants are well and happy, but when their servants are ill or have trouble say, "I don't say anything when my back aches," or make slurring remarks to the effect that "one really can't live up to one's servants?"

Why do many poor relatives look on their rich relatives as arrogant and purse-proud, scarcely admitting any good qualities, and always adding, or prefacing any account of the rich relatives' generosity or kindness with, "If I were as rich as he it would be my delight to do so and so," instead of being appreciative of the kindness?

REMODELING SHOE FACTORY

CHANGES IN MARZLUFF PLANT
BEING MADE.

TO BE COMPLETED MARCH 1

Handsome Office Suite Will Be Part of the New Equipment of the Factory.

F. M. Marzluff & Co. expect at the end of this month to be completely installed in their new quarters. Changes and alterations in the old cotton mill building, now used for the shoe factory have been gradually introduced for several months past. Now the processes of manufacturing shoes is going on on both the second and third floors, whereas the third alone was formerly used. Through out the building new flooring has been laid, although the first floor will not be occupied at present.

On the second floor a part of the machinery has been in operation for some time. A 220-foot line of shafting conveys the power to the apparatus, all of which is new since the big fire of last winter. Many more changes in the equipment of this floor will be made during the remainder of the month.

Model Office Department
Perhaps the greatest change that has been wrought in the factory equipment is in the office quarters. Mr. Marzluff says that when they are completed they will be the best planned in the state, and the convenient arrangement seems to warrant the statement.

Instead of the inaccessible and rather cramped offices on the third floor, the new suite of rooms in located at the south end of the building on the second floor, the entrance being at the foot of a short flight of stairs, the vestibule opening directly upon the street.

Conveniently Arranged
A floor space of 35 by 52 feet is occupied by the offices, the different rooms of the suite being separated by partitions which do not reach to the ceiling. The ceiling is of pressed steel of handsome design. In addition to the general office there are four smaller rooms, three on one side of a main hallway and two on the other. At the opposite end from the door connecting with the street entrance the hallway opens directly upon the factory floor.

Entering the offices from the factory the first door on the left is that of the sample room, which is also occupied by Mr. Hans. The next subdivision is used for a ticket room, and after that comes the "tracer" and stenographer's room. In this room will be a complete telephone system putting the office force in direct touch with every step of the work. About eight phones will make up the system.

Handsomely Finished
On the other side of the passage way is the main office and next to it the private office of Mr. Marzluff. The safe has already been installed in its place and the telephone and messenger call wiring connection made. The woodwork is of light finish, handsome in effect. The rooms are flooded with light, and well adapted to the use to which they are to be put. A neat sample case has been built in the sample room.

FUNERAL WAS PRIVATE

Remains of the Late Frederick Wortendyke Taken East Today.

Funeral services for the late Frederick Wortendyke were held from the home of his son, H. F. Wortendyke, 212 South Third street this morning at nine o'clock. The funeral was a private one, the brief service being conducted by the Rev. J. T. Henderson, pastor of the Presbyterian church. Those who officiated as pall bearers were Hiram Merrill, Richard Valentine, A. F. Hall and Will Farmer. At the conclusion of the services the remains were taken to the depot and shipped to the former home in Park Ridge, N. J., where the burial will take place. L. F. Wortendyke and his sister, Mrs. J. G. Auryansen, of New York City, accompanied their father's remains east.

Mrs. Noah Dutton
Funeral services for the late Mrs. Noah Dutton will be held at the home 154 Milton avenue, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

FUNERAL RITES WERE HELD

Funeral of the Late Edmond E. Leahy Was Held This Morning
St. Patrick's church was filled with sorrowing friends of the late Edmond E. Leahy during the services held in his memory this morning. The remains, accompanied by the members of the bereaved family, arrived in the city Monday evening from South Milwaukee and were taken to the Terrace street home of Mrs. Mary Leahy, grandmother of the deceased.

The funeral was held at 9:30 o'clock this morning, requiem mass being celebrated by the Rev. Father James McGinley. There were many beautiful floral tributes and the service was an impressive one. The interment was in Mount Olivet cemetery, the pall bearers being William Hogan, Robert O'Brien, Walter Seitz Morris J. McCarthy, James Joyce and Frank M. Joyce.

Some good cooks can't make a good pie. Grubb has a young professor baking apple and lemon pies and girls you ought to see him in his white apron peel apples. He has only just passed 21 and you can catch him easier than you can his pies as they are usually sold ahead as fast as he can bake them. He ought to have a young lady helpmate.

It is usually supposed that baked beans once a week is the correct thing but many families are using from 2 to 3 jars of Grubb's fresh home-baked pork and beans each week.

Grubb is correct on the fried-cake business for I never ate anything so good in all my life.

BADLY BRUISED AT DOTY WORKS

Dennis McGinley, an Employee, Was Severely Injured by a Big Fly Wheel.

Dennis McGinley, an employee of the New Doty Works was badly bruised this morning and had a narrow escape from being killed while at work in the machine shop.

He was engaged in moving a fly wheel weighing about twelve hundred pounds, when a chain slipped and allowed it to fall over. Fortunately for McGinley, the wheel was almost as tall as he was and as it fell its weight pushed him out of the way instead of carrying him down with it and crushing him. As it was the right side of his body from his waist down was bruised and lacerated but no bones were broken. Dr. Whiting and Dr. St. John were called to the works and examined the injured man but found that no bones were broken so had him conveyed to his home on North Franklin street, where his injuries were dressed. Mr. McGinley is one of the trusted employees of the works and his present injuries will fall heavily upon him as his family has just been released from a four weeks' quarantine of scarlet fever.

ROBBER ASSAULTS WOMAN OPERATOR

After Being Shot He Makes a Fierce
Attack on His Victim, Beating
Her Into Insensibility.

Monongahela, Pa., Feb. 10.—During the night a robber forced his way into the telegraph tower at Walston, on the Pittsburgh, Virginia and Charleston railroad, and attacked Mrs. Wilson, the operator. Mrs. Wilson shot at the man and this so enraged him that he beat her almost insensible and then tried to burn her to death by forcing her head into the stove. An arriving freight train, however, frightened him away and he left his victim unconscious. The crew of the freight rescued Mrs. Wilson.

Mrs. Wilson is the wife of ex-Mayor Wilson of this city. She is handsome, aged 30 and regarded as fearless. Her condition is critical.

Early in the evening four men made an attempt to break into the tower, but they were frustrated by the arrival of several railroaders. It is thought Mrs. Wilson's assailant was one of this party.

AGED MAN AMPUTATES HIS LEG Nervy Act of Patient Who Is Dissatisfied With Operation.

York, Pa., Feb. 10.—C. W. Selgman, 78 years old, was not satisfied when his left foot was amputated at the ankle recently, and he cut off six inches of the leg himself. He is suffering from gangrene, to cure which his leg would have to be taken off above the knee, but this was impossible owing to his age. Dr. W. Clark Smith, however, yielded to the old man's insistence and cut off the foot at the ankle. Later a member of the family found a six-inch section of the leg hidden near the bed. The old man, after repeated denials, finally confessed that he had cut it off with a knife and saw. He is apparently none the worse for the operation.
